

Download Gerbera Plantation Guide

Gerbera Daisy Planting Guide. Plants thrive in a position with full sun and sandy soil. A little compost added at planting will encourage good flower growth. With newly sown seeds, a well-draining propagation mix is a must, as is bright indirect light. Crown rot is a common problem with gerbera daisies, which is caused by planting the crowns ...Gerbera Cultivation process. Gerbera is important commercial cut flower crop, and Gerbera flowers have a wide range of colors including yellow, orange, cream-white, pink, brick red, red color, terracotta and various other intermediate colors.Gerbera Flower Farming Guide: ... Planting Season in Gerbera Flower Farming:-Gerbera plantation can be done in spring as well as summer season. Gerbera needs good light intensity, planting in spring season (Jan to March) is best for 1.5 year tissue culture. Summer (June to July) is Suitable for 1, 1.5 & 2 years tissue cultures.Gerbera flower can give very high return if planned and maintained well. Here is the complete guide to cultivate Gerbera daisy in India. Discover how to plant Gerbera, protect Gerbera plant from various diseases and harvest Gerbera flowers in scientific way to get maximum market value.